DIED, (communicaten.) In this town, on the 2d inst., of Billious Pneumonia, Mrs. Eley Ann Wheeden, aged 73 years.

—She was a member of the Baptist Church, to which she had been attached for several years,-Oh, how happy was the last moments of this sister, she died the death of the righteous, and may my last end be like hers. To die was but her gain. Her troubles on earth are all over; her peace was made with God. She is now gone to reap the rich reward of those who obey their Lord and keep his commandments. She has left a numerous circle of friends and relatives to mourn her loss.

And is that body cold in death ? The form we loved so well. And has she drawn her latest breath, And gone in Heaven to dwell !

Ah! yes, her soul is now in Heaven; It reigns with angels there; A glorious crown to her is given, A spotless garb shall wear.

Oh! must we bid our friend adieu. Bid her a long farewell-Her Christian smile no more to view. While on the earth we dwell?

We'll meet, I hope, on that blest shore, Where free from grief and pain, Our souls shall mingle evermore, Never to part again.

Farewell! farewell! a long farewell! My tears are on the sod. Where rests thy dust-thy soul shall dwell. Eternally with God.
